Volume 9, Issue 1

Certified Technicians Save You Money

Insurance restoration work has to be done correctly to avoid reopening claims. With that in mind, we take our jobs seriously and are educated in the necessary areas to provide the restoration that you and your clients expect. After all, insurance restoration is a very specialized area in the construction field.

Our staff of technicians currently hold the following training and certifications:

- 10 Certified Water Damage Technicians
- 3 Certified Fire Damage Technicians
- 4 Successful Subrogation Trainees
- 2 Vortex Drying System Trainees
- 3 Applied Structural Drying Trainees
- 3 Advanced Successful Subrogation Trainees
- 5 Thermal Imaging Trainees scoping water losses,
- 2 Contents Processing and Packouts Trainees

Needless to say, if there is property insurance loss, we know how to restore it. We have been in business over 20 years and have restored thousands of water and fire losses. When you refer FGS The Restoration Company to your clients, you can have peace of mind knowing we can handle it. We will be there to explain the repairs and ensure the satisfaction of the insured while staying within the parameters of the insurance coverage.
